Timber Industry Welcomes Forestry Appointment

Timber Queensland, the State's peak timber industry body, has welcomed the recent announcement of Paul Fennelly as CEO of the newly-formed Forestry Plantations Queensland (FPQ).

Mr Fennelly is a former Director-General of the Department of State Development, Trade and Innovation, with his appointment confirmed by Premier Peter Beattie.

Timber Queensland CEO Rod McInnes said: "Having one of the State's leading bureaucrats appointed to this position indicates the significance the Beattie Government puts on our $2.7 billion per annum industry."

"We look forward to working with Paul Fennelly and the team at FPQ to ensure our industry grows with the Queensland economy."
